TONY ABBOTT THREATENED BY JOY 94.9?

Federal Opposition Leader Tony Abbott, the man who admits to being threatened by homosexuals, was interviewed on Australia's first and only gay and lesbian radio station JOY 94.9 in Melbourne.

The budgie smuggler himself went head to head with JOY 94.9's current affairs presenter Doug Pollard on the station's political program Freshly Doug from 9:30am.

A well-respected journalist in the gay and lesbian community, Pollard tackled Abbott about a range of issues including anti-discrimination legislation, relationship recognition and parenting rights for the GLBT community.

The podcast of the full interview is available at www.joy.org.au.
